

It never HAPPENED

What happened in Krakow, stays ... in Krakow.

I don't remember! I can't remember what I did yesterday and how I got to my bed. And this letter! It looks like we've been messing solidly. Great! And it was supposed to be just a trip to Krakow for business ... How can I fix it all? Where to start, so there will be no more trouble? Keep calm. I wonder what will surprise us today ...

Game for:

- thirsty of unusual, surprising on every step adventure
- groups who would like to spice up the integration with the night city game
- people with a sense of humor and distance to themselves, be focused on having a good time
- all those who want to know the night life of Krakow - the original, atmospheric pubs and restaurants, cultural institutions, charming alleys

The challenge:

Working in a small team, you will discover the secrets that Kraków hides from you. Secrets... about yourselves and the events from the previous day! Wandering from point to point, you will come across good friends who remember you very well and have important information. You will find the envelopes and objects that you have lost the previous day. You will have to extricate yourself from funny situations, to repair the damage and finally get to the place where it all began. Then you'll have to arrange your own chronicle of the events from the day before. The more perceptive and inquisitive, the greater the chance that discovered details will come together in a meaningful for you whole!

Logistics:

- game suitable for small and larger group
- the program feasible for both day and night, regardless of the season

Variants / Extensions:

- The game is dedicated to Krakow, but can be easily adapted to other Polish cities.
- It is recommended to crown a game with thematic integration evening.
- Tasks can get even more attractive by learning Polish feasts tradition.

The benefits:

- getting to know Krakow from unusual side
- inputting into the role and freeing the decks of positive emotions
- demonstrating the ability to solve various tasks and puzzles
- developing the cunning, perceptive and good organization in team
- a better understanding of the team in an atmosphere of fun

The game through the eyes of participants:

"It hasn't been anything like this before - addictive gameplay and the effect of surprise."

"We laughed to tears by fulfilling the tasks provided to us. I did not know I have that much of potential in me."

"What day of my life was the most beautiful? It was not a day, it was a night."

Brigitte Bardot.
